

Little Brown Jug eligibles We Will See And Rockin Image Are Early Favorites For Saturday's Delvin Miller Adios Pace

North America Cup runnerup We Will See and Meadowlands Pace elimination winner Rockin Image, are the early favorites for Saturday's $700,000 Delvin Miller Adios Pace at The Meadows. Seventeen of the 22 elimination starters, including We Will See and Rockin Image, are eligible to the 65th Little Brown Jug.

Three eliminations of the Adios will be held Saturday afternoon, July 24, with the top three finishers from each advancing to the Final to be held the following Saturday afternoon, July 31. Post time for the first elimination is approximately 3:25 p.m.

We Will See (Post 1) and Rockin Image (Post 4) drew into the first elimination along with fellow Jug eligibles Delmarvelous (Post 5), and Shoobee's Place (Post 7).

I'm Gorgeous (Post 3), who was second in his Meadowlands Pace elim and fifth in the Final, is a slight favorite in the second Adios elimination. His top challenger could be Pennsylvania Sires Stakes winner Versado (Post 5). Other Jug eligibles in this elim are Art Professor (Post 1), Outrageous Art (Post 2), Golden Time (Post 4) and Nova Artist (Post 7).

Valentino (Post 7) is the early pick in the third elimination. Valentino finished third in both his Meadowlands Pace elim and Final. His Adios rivals, all Jug eligibles, are Tobago Cays (Post 1), Trick Man (Post 3), Pang Shui (Post 4), Blue Rock (Post 6), Whackamole Hanover (Post 7) and Foreign Officer (Post 8).

The Little Brown Jug will be raced Thursday afternoon, September 23 at the Delaware, OH County Fair.

Shadow Play, in 2008, was the last Adios winner to also win the Little Brown Jug. .
