DELAWARE, OH—JJ Hall, Lima Legend and Future Night Train won divisions of Monday's $54,924 Ohio Breeders Championship 2-Year-Old Colt Trot at the Delaware County Fair.

JJ Hall trotted in 2:00-flat and gave driver Chip Noble his 97th victory at the Delaware County Fair with his win in the first OBC division. The Jailhouse Jesse colt, sent off as the 2/5 favorite, led from start to finish to defeat DJ John Boy and Northmedo Wine Guy. JJ Hall, who paid $2.60-2.40-2.60, is trained by Scott Mogan and owned by Douglas Milliard of Woodstock, ON.

Lima Legend scored his sixth win in a row in the second OBC division in 2:01 for driver Don McKirgan. The son of Jailhouse Jesse trotted to the top just past the three-quarters and easily outdistanced Count Howie and Herschel's Hero. Lima Legend, who paid $4.20, 4.40, is trained by Dee Hotton and owned by Timura Trotters of Wooster, OH.

Dan Noble warmed up for his first Little Brown Jug drive with a national season's record 1:58.3 by Future Night Train in the third OBC division. The win was Noble's fifth of the week. Future Night Train picked up his seventh victory of the season for trainer Richard Kirby and owner Michael Kirby of Rickwood, OH. The winner paid $6.80, 3.40, 2.80.

For all the latest news, entries and results from the Delaware County Fair log onto the website: www.littlebrownjug.com.