Magical Mike Pace Cancelled

By Tom White August 31, 2001

Delaware, Ohio racing officials have cancelled the Magical Mike Invitational Pace scheduled for Thursday, September 20 because of conflicts with other similar events.

"We want to maintain the quality of the Magical Mike and we felt that with the conflicts this year that would be impossible," said Tom Thomson, director of racing. "We will work with Tom Walsh and the Magical Mike syndicate to create a bigger and better race for 2002. We want to have the best horses in North America compete in this race."

The expanded Delaware, Ohio Grand Circuit begins Saturday afternoon September 15 and continues through "Jug Day" Thursday, September 20.
