Record-Equaling 23 Fillies In Three Eliminations Of Wednesday's $358,175 Jugette At Delaware, Ohio

By Tom White 9/12/03

Delaware, Ohio--Remember When, Gordon's Jin Ms and Animated Art are the early favorites for Wednesday's $358,175 Jugette 3YO Filly Pace at the Delaware County Fair. A record-equaling 23 fillies will race in three eliminations of the 33rd Jugette with the top three finishers in each elimination returning for the Final.

First elimination favorite Remember When, trained by Robert McIntosh and driven by Chris Christoforou, has earned $758,664 lifetime. The Camluck filly won the $538,498 Fan Hanover Final last month in a career best 1:50.4. She also won an elimination of the Nadia Lobell but finished fifth in last week's $210,000 Final to Numeric Hanover and Animated Art at Lexington's Red Mile. She is 5-2 from the No. 2 post. Gorey Daze, 3-1 in the morning line, has the rail in the first elimination. The Bill Robinson-trained filly won a New Jersey Sires Stakes in her last start and will be driven by Luc Ouellette.

World Record holder Gordon's Jin Ms is a slight 5-2 second elimination choice over Numeric Hanover, who is 3-1 in the early odds. Gordon's Jin Ms, who set a five-eighths mile track world record of 1:51 at Pocono Downs, has the No. 5 post for driver Brian Sears and trainer Ray Van Dreason. Numeric Hanover won last Monday's Nadia Lobell Final in 1:51 but must start from the No.7 post in her Jugette elimination. Numeric Hanover, 3-1, will be driven by Dave Palone and is trained by Bill Robinson.

Animated Art is a heavy 9-5 early choice from the rail in the third Jugette elimination. The Noel Daley-trained Artsplace filly was second in the $400,000 Mistletoe Shalee Final at The Meadowlands and second in both her Nadia Lobell elim and Final. Michel Lachance will drive. Jennie Fanetta, 5-2, and Allamerican Raquel, 3-1, are likely challengers to Animated Art. The Tom Shay-trained Jennie Fanetta won last week's $100,000 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes Championship. Allamerican Raquel, trained by Jeffrey Stafford, has taken a couple of New Jersey Sires Stakes and the Mistletoe Shalee Consolation.

The $358,175 Jugette is the richest ever, surpassing 1998's purse of $319,637. Towner's Image and Eternal Camnation share the Jugette stakes record of 1:52.3.
